Introduction

Christ speaks

These fourteen steps that you are now about to walk you do not take alone.

I walk with you.

Though you are you and I am I, yet we are truly one -- one Christ.

And therefore my way of the cross two thousand years ago and your "way" now are also one.

But note this difference. My life was incomplete until I crowned it by my death. Your fourteen steps will only be complete when you have crowned them by your life.

1st Station - Jesus is Condemned

*We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you
here and in all the churches in the whole world
-- because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.*

Christ speaks

In Pilate's hands, my other self, I see my Father's will. Though Pilate is unjust, he is the lawful governor and he has power over me.

And so the Son of God obeys.

If I can bow to Pilate's rule because this is my Father's will, can you refuse obedience to those whom I place over you?

I reply

My Jesus, Lord, obedience cost you your life.
For me it costs an act of will -- no more -- and yet how hard it is for me to bend.

Remove the blinders from my eyes that I may see that it is you whom I obey in all who govern me.

Lord, it is you.

Lord, have mercy on us -- Lord, have mercy.

2nd Station - Jesus Takes His Cross

*We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you
here and in all the churches in the whole world
-- because by your holy cross you have
redeemed the world.*

Christ speaks

This cross, this chunk of tree, is what my Father chose for me.

The crosses you must bear are largely products of your daily life. And yet my Father chose them, too, for you.

Receive them from his hands.

Take heart, my other self, I will not let your burdens grow one ounce too heavy for your strength.

I reply

My Jesus, Lord, I take my daily cross. I welcome the monotony that often marks my day, discomforts of all kinds, the summer's heat, the winter's cold, my disappointments, tensions, setbacks, cares.

Remind me often that in carrying my cross, I carry yours with you. And though I carry a sliver only of your cross, you carry all of mine, except a sliver, in return.

Lord, have mercy on us -- Lord, have mercy.

♪ Through her heart, his sorrow sharing,
all his bitter anguish bearing,
now at length the sword has passed. ♪

3rd Station - Jesus Falls

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you here and in all the churches in the whole world -- because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Christ speaks

The God who made the universe, and holds it in existence by his will alone, becomes a man too weak to bear a piece of timber's weight.

How human in his weakness is the Son of God.

My Father willed it thus. I could not be your model otherwise.

If you would be my other self, you also must accept without complaint your human frailties.

I reply

Lord Jesus, how can I refuse?

I willingly accept my weaknesses, my irritations and my moods, my headaches and fatigue, all my defects of body, mind and soul.

Because they are your will for me, these "handicaps" of my humanity, I gladly suffer them.

Make me content with all my discontents, but give me strength to struggle after you.

Lord, have mercy on us -- Lord, have mercy.

♪ Oh how sad and sore distressed was that Mother highly blest of the sole begotten One! ♪

4th Station - Jesus Meets His Mother

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you here and in all the churches in the whole world -- because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Christ speaks

My mother sees me whipped. She sees me kicked and driven like a beast. She counts my every wound. But though her soul cries out in agony, no protests or complaint escapes her lips or even enters her thoughts.

She shares my martyrdom – and I share hers. We hide no pain, no sorrow, from each other's eyes. This is my Father's will.

I reply

My Jesus, Lord, I know what you are telling me. To watch the pain of those we love is harder than to bear our own.

To carry my cross after you, I, too, must stand and watch the sufferings of my dear ones – the heartaches, sicknesses and grief of those I love.

And I must let them watch mine, too. I do believe – for those who love you all things work together unto good.

Lord, have mercy on us -- Lord, have mercy.

♪ Christ above in torment hangs, she beneath beholds the pangs of her dying, glorious Son. ♪

5th Station - Simon Helps Jesus

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you here and in all the churches in the whole world -- because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Christ speaks

My strength is gone; I can no longer bear the cross alone. And so the legionnaires make Simon give me aid.

This Simon is like you, my other self.

Give me your strength. Each time you lift some burden from another's back, you lift as with your very hand the cross' awful weight that crushes me.

I reply

Lord, make me realize that every time I wipe a dish, pick up an object off the floor, assist a child in some small task, or give another preference in traffic or the store; each time I feed the hungry, clothe the naked, teach the ignorant, or lend my hand in any way – it matters not to whom – my name is Simon. And the kindness I extend to them I really give to you.

Lord, have mercy on us -- Lord, have mercy.

♪ Is there one who would not weep, whelmed in miseries so deep, Christ's dear Mother to behold? ♪

6th Station - Veronica Helps Jesus

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you here and in all the churches in the whole world -- because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Christ speaks

Can you be brave enough, my other self, to wipe my bloody face?

Where is my face, you ask?

At home whenever eyes filled up with tears, at work when tensions rise, on playgrounds, in the slums, the courts, the hospitals, the jails – wherever suffering exists – my face is there. And there I look for you to wipe away my blood and tears.

I reply

Lord what you ask is hard it calls for courage and self-sacrifice, and I am weak. Please, give me strength. Don't let me run away because of fear. Lord, live in me and act in me and love in me. And not in me alone – it all of us – so that we may reveal no more your bloody but your glorious face on earth.

Lord, have mercy on us -- Lord, have mercy.

♪ Can the human heart refrain from partaking in her pain, in that Mother's pain untold? ♪

7th Station - Jesus Falls Again

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you here and in all the churches in the whole world -- because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Christ speaks

This seventh step, my other self, is one that tests your will. From this fall learn to persevere in doing good.

The time will come when all your efforts seem to fail and you will think, "I can't go on."

Then turn to me, my heavy laden one, and I will give you rest.

Trust me and carry on.

I reply

Give me your courage, Lord. When failure presses heavily on me and I am desolate, stretch out your hand to lift me up.

I know I must not cease, but persevere in doing good.

But help me, Lord. Alone there's nothing I can do. With you, I can do anything you ask.

I will.

Lord, have mercy on us -- Lord, have mercy.

8th Station - Jesus Consoles the Women

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you here and in all the churches in the whole world -- because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Christ speaks

How often have I longed to take the children of Jerusalem and gather them to me. But they refused.

But now these women weep for me and my heart mourns for them – mourns for their sorrows that will come.

I comfort those who seek to solace me.

How gentle can you be, my other self? How kind?

I reply

My Jesus, your compassion in your passion is beyond compare.

Lord, teach me, help me learn. When I would snap at those who hurt me with their ridicule, those who misunderstand, or hinder me with some misguided helpfulness, those who intrude upon my privacy – then help me curb my tongue.

And yet my will is mine.
And so is yours.

Know this, my other self, your body may be broken, but no force on earth and none in hell can take away your will.

Your will is yours.

I reply

Yet who has ever been so rich?

Possessing nothing, I own all – My Father's love.

If you, too, would own everything, be not solicitous about your food, your clothes, your life.

Detach me from the craving for prestige, position, wealth. Root out of me all trace of envy of my neighbor who has more than I. Release me from the vice of pride, my longing to exalt myself, and lead me to the lowest place.

Christ speaks

Can you imagine what a crucifixion is?

My executioners stretch my arms; they hold my hand and wrist against the wood and press the nail until it stabs my flesh. Then, with one heavy hammer smash, they drive it through – and pain bursts like a bomb of fire in my brain.

They seize the other arm; and agony again explodes.

Then raising up my knees so that my feet are flat against the wood, they hammer them fast, too.

I reply

My God, I look at you and think: Is my soul worth this much?

What can I give you in return?

You, too, must part from those you love, and grief will come to you.

In your bereavements think of this: A multitude of souls were saved by Mary's sharing in my Cavalry. Your grief can also be the price of souls.

I reply

I beg you, Lord, help me accept the partings that must come – from friends who go away, my children leaving home, and most of all, my dear ones when you shall call them to yourself.
