Our parish has joined a Catholic website called FORMED. This website is loaded with articles, videos, eBooks, and much more—all of which are thoroughly Catholic. You simply go to this website: <https://formed.org> (This is a secure site, which is why there is an “s” in the address). Once there, you will want to click on “Sign Up” (do not click on “Sign In”). In the next prompt, choose “Sign up as a parishioner.” The next prompt will ask you to “Create a New Account.” In the search box, put in the parish’s zip code: 60505. That will give you Annunciation as your choice. Click on that, and then click “next.” From there, you’ll put in your personal information.

Please note:

Due to the government legislation regarding patient privacy, names of people to be prayed for at Mass or in the Bulletin can be listed only if that person, or, in the case of their incapacitation, the person delegated to their medical care, calls the parish office to give permission. The above also pertains to the Sacrament of The Anointing of the Sick.

Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary will continue to pray for all the sick and suffering, even if unable to list by name.

From the Desk of Father McFadden:

Dear Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary Parish Family,

In the midst of busy family life, one of the questions that could arise is, "If Christ's command is to love the poor, where am I to find the time? Most of my time is spent caring for my family!"

I want to invite us as a parish to reframe this a little bit. Jesus gives us in the Gospel a set of works called the Corporal Works of Mercy and another called the Spiritual Works of Mercy. The corporal works of mercy are feeding the hungry, giving drink to the thirsty, clothing the naked, sheltering the homeless, visiting the sick and imprisoned, and bearing the dead. The spiritual works of mercy are instructing the ignorant, counseling the doubtful, admonishing the sinner, bearing wrongs patiently, forgiving offenses willingly, and praying for the living and the dead.

To care for the little ones, to give them drink as Jesus invites us to in today's Gospel, actually is one of the corporal works of mercy. So begin by doing these well to the people most immediately in your arena of life (for many of us, our families). Console your spouse after a long day. Counsel your children when they begin to have doubts. Feed your family, and make your houses into homes where those who know your charity may one day welcome you into eternity. Visit grandparents who are older. Visit God's children around our parish who may not often have visitors. (A good question to begin here is who are my neighbors? Are they being well cared for?)

When we do these, and do them well, we're well on the way to the joy of eternity.

Gratefully your parish priest,
Fr. McFadden

Congrats to our Newlyweds, Blaise and Jillian Fata! Blaise is an Alumnus of our parish school, we are so proud of him and excited for him and Jillian!

Rediscovering Your Catholic Faith

From the Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church

PART ONE: THE PROFESSION OF FAITH
Section Two: The Profession of Faith

CHAPTER TWO: I Believe In Jesus Christ the Only Son of God

“Jesus Ascended into Heaven And is Seated at the Right Hand of God The Father Almighty”

132. What does the Ascension mean?

After forty days during which Jesus showed himself to the Apostles with ordinary human features which veiled his glory as the Risen One, Christ ascended into heaven and was seated at the right hand of the Father. He is the Lord who now in his humanity reigns in the everlasting glory of the Son of God and constantly intercedes for us before the Father. He sends us his Spirit and gives us the hope of one day reaching the place he has prepared for us.

“From Thence He Shall Come to Judge the Living and the Dead”

133. How does the Lord Jesus now reign?

As the Lord of the cosmos and of history, the Head of his Church, the glorified Christ mysteriously remains on earth where his kingdom is already present in seed and in its beginning in the Church. One day he will return in glory but we do not know the time. Because of this we live in watchful anticipation, praying “Come, Lord” (Revelation 22:20).

134. How will the coming of the Lord in glory happen?

After the final cosmic upheaval of this passing world the glorious coming of Christ will take place. Then will come the definitive triumph of God in the parousia and the Last Judgment. Thus the Kingdom of God will be realized.

135. How will Christ judge the living and the dead?

Christ will judge with the power he has gained as the Redeemer of the world who came to bring salvation to all. The secrets of hearts will be brought to light as well as the conduct of each one toward God and toward his neighbor. Everyone, according to how he has lived, will either be filled with life or damned for eternity. In this way, “the fullness of Christ” (Ephesians 4:13) will come about in which “God may be all in all” (1Corinthians 15:28).
